Reg. Charity No. 512717

cbawestmidlands@archaeologyuk.org

The CBA West Midlands regional group is an independent educational charity, funded by supporter subscription. The group seeks to advance the education of the public in archaeology, advance and assist research, provide information, encourage widespread participation in archaeology, and to provide a framework for communication and discussion to the wider archaeological community. There are many archaeological groups and societies in our region as well as professional organisations. CBA West Midlands invites all with an interest, both amateur and professional, to join us in championing the archaeology of our region.

Subscription to CBAWM can be arranged alongside membership of the national CBA and runs annually. Please note that membership of CBA does not automatically include membership of a regional group. If you choose to subscribe to CBAWM directly, please fill in the form below to subscribe, and send to our Membership Secretary; Ellie Ramsey, CBAWM, 11 St Albans Road, Moseley, Birmingham B13 9AS
